

Ronnie Malcolm, RRM (UK) Limited

Professional summary

Ronnie Malcolm brings two decades of consultancy and training experience to your organisation. Ronnie runs his own consultancy and training firm RRM (UK) Limited and his activities fall into three broad business groupings:

- delivering high impact, high quality training courses,
- business consultancy advice and coaching,
- conference speaking engagements across the globe.

Ronnie has worked in consultancy since 1988, he was Managing Director and co-owner of ECN Limited (1992/99) and established RRM (UK) in 2000. His initial consultancy and training experience was with P-E International where he operated from several regional offices.

He is a time served engineer with a degree (BSc Honours in Production Engineering and Management) from The University of Strathclyde. Subsequently he worked at two very different ends of the manufacturing industry with WEIR Pumps and as a business planner with Motorola Semiconductors. His consultancy experience now spans all industry sectors working predominantly in the UK but also with clients across the USA and mainland Europe.

Ronnie is a skilled communicator and motivator with a clear ability to link vision and strategic development with day-to-day operations. His objective is to help you to see your world differently and provide a valuable contribution to you and your team.

He has a number of blue-chip clients across many industry sectors, he also works with small and family firms. Recent and current clients include: Children's Hospice Association Scotland, Department of Work and Pensions, James Watt College, ClydeUnion, HM Treasury Solicitors, Horsecross Arts, Schering Plough, Sulzer Pumps, Philips, First Group, St Andrews Links Trust, Loch Lomond Golf Club, Isleworth Golf and Country Club (Florida) and The Penn Club of NYC. His niche in the golf industry has resulted in him working on behalf of many industry bodies across the globe.

Ronnie loves what he does and welcomes the opportunity to make a difference for you and your organisation.
